RG104 E-1 Box 156 Feb-Apr 1889

C. H. Clark, President. H. M. Lutz, Vice President. J. M. Collinswood, Cashier.

Centennial National Bank

Philadelphia 2/14 1889

To The
Hon. Chief Coiner, U. S. Mint
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir,—

A discussion is taking place among the clerks of this institution as to which is the face and which the back of the nickel whose rubbing I inclose

By forwarding the desired information you would place us under great obligations to your Honorable Self.

Very respectfully,
Howard S. Barnes
Centennial N. B'k.
Philada.

(Fig. 1.) (Fig. 2.)

RG104 E-1 Box 156 Feb-Apr 1889

Washington, D.C.,
February 16. 89.

Howard S. Baones,

Mint Bureau
Feby 16th 1889
Respectfully referred to Supt
Mint U.S. Philadelphia
R. E. Preston
Actng Director

RECEIVED
FEB 18 1889
U. S. MINT, PHILA.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 156

Centennial National Bank
Philadelphia
February 14, 1889

To the Hon. Chief Coiner, U.S. Mint
Washington, D.C.

Dear Sir, -

A discussion is taking place among the clerks of this institution as to which is the face and which the back of the nickel whose rubbing I inclose.

By forwarding the desired information you would place us under great obligations to your Honorable self.

Very respectfully,
Howard S. Barnes
c/o Centennial N. Bk.
Philada.

[Please see original images for coin rubbings.]

[Noted on back:]

Mint Bureau
February 16, 1889

Respectfully referred to Supt. Mint U.S. Philadelphia.

R.E. Preston
Acting Director